Message

The motto of the year is Sustain Life, Sustainable Livelihood. Life is very valuable, only when it is preserved will this life be alive. It is everyone's responsibility and duty to maintain life and to have a sustainable livelihood. It is the obligation of each person to assist each other if one cannot accomplish his goal by himself. A mechanism for holistic action for poverty alleviation is provided by the sustainable livelihood process. The Popular Adaptation of a Sustainable Living System focuses on complex, human-centered poverty reduction initiatives. God thought of sustainability when He created life and ensured that people care for each other, share, and work hand in hand to achieve a dignified life.

CMSSS works to maintain their lives and to provide sustainable livelihood for oppressed and downtrodden women, young people, girls, children, families, farmers, people living with disabilities etc. It has done yeomen service in the field of rural development and has brought a social, political, cultural and economic improvements in the lives of individuals, their families as well as in the communities. It is organizing unorganized women into self-help groups (SHGs), training them and building their skills in different fields, helping families through income-generating programs to achieve self-sufficiency, supporting children to get their education done, mainstreaming the people living with disability, Youth and School dropouts with skill development programs etc.

I sincerely thank the former Director Fr. Marcel Pinto for his selfless service towards the organization and congratulate Fr. Shantharaj R. the incoming Director for his efforts and wish him all the best for his new mission at CMSSS.

I thank one and all with the assurance of my prayers. Let us thank the Lord for giving us the chance to serve the poor and work for his Kingdom.

God bless you all,

Invoking God's Blessings,

+ Bishop T. Anthony Swamy

Message

God writes straight with crooked lines, is a Portuguese proverb. If you look at the current situation nothing seems to be alright. They're all in a mess. God exclaimed that all was good when He created the universe and everything within it. The current situation, however, seems to suggest that nothing seems to be fine. In society, there is lot of inequality, such as atrocities against women and girls, against lower caste, the poor and the oppressed. It seems that democracy is a mirage.

There are lots of catastrophes like flood and soil erosion etc. The COVID 19 pandemic is rising day by day, contributing to this. The possibility of war between nations exists. Our inner country is not at ease. In this situation, God called us to bring the affected people peace, justice and solace. God alone can set all things straight. We're called upon to do the best and set aside the rest that He will take care of.

We are indebted to the leadership and motivation of The President and the Bishop of Chikamagalur Rt. Rev. Dr. T. Anthony Swamy, the members of the Governing Board, General Body, the clergy, the religious and the staff of the CMSSS.

We are very grateful to the donors of national and international agencies, individuals, the GOs and NGOs who have sacrificed their precious time and resources for the upliftment of the poor and needy.

Yours in Service

Fr. Shantharaj R

Director CMSSS
